A Legacy of Nature-Inspired Skincare

For over 50 years, Justine has built a heritage of naturally derived skincare products that address South African skincare concerns. This has become our legacy, & generations of women have passed down the secret of Justine to their daughters & granddaughters. We are proud of this heritage – of our Community of Women.

Our models this month actually use & love our Justine Daily ranges! Tshegofatso Bogatsu loves the Justine Daily Hydrating range for its 24 hours of intense moisture*, & Lebogang Matlapeng adores the universal Dailycare Night Cream for its restorative results. Chimoné van Hall is equally impressed with the soothing effect the Justine Daily Nourishing range has on her skin.

Our Community of Women is not just made up of our loyal customers, but of a network of Consultants who have built their own legacy as experts in our products – matching unique skincare concerns to the perfect product & thereby addressing each specific need.

We understand that each woman is different & so is her skin. One solution does not fit everyone. That is why we have developed our range of skincare products over the years to address specific needs for South African skin, using revolutionary techniques to blend science with nature to deliver undeniable, visible results.

*Based on a clinical study.

We continue to drive revolutionary skincare this month with the fresh, new look of our beloved Justine Daily skincare ranges. We invite you to experience it for yourself as we continue to build our legacy with you at our side.
